Robertson, Magistrates Terry Waddell, Mickey Garner, Ronald Johnson, Steve Richardson, Larry Holt Attorney Don Byrom, County Attorney Kevin Shearer and County Treasurer Kim Fenske.

RESTRICTION RELEASE ON SCHOOL BOARD PROPERTY: Judge Robertson stated he had been contact by attorney Byrom regarding a piece of property that was being closed on which had a restriction on it that needed to be cleared up before the closing. He added it was his recommendation to release the restriction. Attorney Byrom explained the original property had the restriction on it and parcels of the property had been separated out and those restrictions were still attached to the deeds. He indicated the parcels that had been separated from the original parcels had been sold to the Board of Education as well as to a resident of the county. The resident of the county then sold their parcel to the fiscal court which is where the children's advocacy center is located. Attorney Byrom is asking the fiscal court to remove the restriction from the deed. Magistrate Richardson made a motion to release the restriction on the deed with Magistrate Holt seconding. The roll call was unanimous.
